

Commit to a Gift in your Will

Imagine the joy of knowing that your contribution – no matter its size – plays a pivotal role in transforming the Cardinia community. As a registered charity, we can receive versatile options, such as a specific dollar amount, percentage of your estate, art collections, shares, real estate or life insurance.

With a single, straightforward gift, you have the power to touch the lives of numerous deserving local causes and drive remarkable social change across education, health, social cohesion, the environment, the arts, and crisis support.

How to include the Cardinia Community Foundation in your will

To include the Cardinia Community Foundation in your will, you can:

- Specify a dollar value
- Specify a percentage of your estate
- Specify real estate, shares, art collections or other capital assets.
- Create a Named Fund in Memory

We recommend you seek legal advice when making your Will as individual circumstances may vary. This wording (to right) is suggested as a general guide for you and your advisors.
